

David Ritter, CVA, MBA

Professional Experience

David Ritter is a Shareholder at Doeren Mayhew and a Director in the firm's investment bank Doeren Mayhew Capital Advisors. Working alongside domestic and international companies, he is known for providing financial analysis to help businesses build strategies and move quickly toward goals.

David provides a multitude of advisory services to clients, including merger and acquisition guidance, business valuations and strategic planning. From prospecting merger opportunities for clients, to establishing effective financial and operational negotiations for new business, to deal closing and post-merger integration, he is completely hands-on in the entire merger and acquisition process. David also helps clients understand the true value of their business through a wide range of investment, branch, goodwill, mortgage rights and financial valuation services.

Whether he is establishing a well-planned business strategy, providing his expertise on financial modeling, delivering project management budgeting and forecasting, raising venture capital funding or completing due diligence, clients can find confidence in knowing David's experience and adaptability will lead to a successful outcome for their business ventures.

David successfully applies his advisory skills abroad while working within the firm's international arm, Moore Stephens Doeren Mayhew.

Education and Certifications

- Master of Business Administration – Carnegie Mellon, Tepper School of Business
- Bachelor of Arts, Business Economics – University of California, Santa Barbara
- Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA)
- Series 63 and 79 Securities Licensed

Memberships and Affiliations

- National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts

Shareholder Strategic Advisory Group

248.244.3380
ritter@doeren.com

Areas of Expertise

- Business Advisory
- Investment Banking
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Strategic Planning