FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

3 Promotions Announced for Doeren Mayhew's Houston Office

HOUSTON – Nov. 3, 2015 – Doeren Mayhew, a top 100 U.S. CPA and business advisory firm, has announced the promotion of three of its staff within its Houston office.

Promoted staff assumed new positions of managers or senior associates. Each staff member is being promoted within their designated service area and will take on added responsibilities, including increased engagement oversight and interaction with clients.

Accounting, Audit and Assurance

Joining the ranks of manager, Bradley Miller, CPA, will leverage sound accounting practices and assurance services to help clients improve controls, create efficiencies and simplify management's day-to-day financial decisions.

Tax

Claudia Sun has earned a promotion to a senior associate, where she will continue to ensure timely compliance and file a wide variety of tax deliverables, identify tax-saving strategies and provide innovative tax planning to clients.

Investment Banking

In addition to firm promotions, our investment banking practice, Doeren Mayhew Capital Advisors, promoted William Rosell to a senior associate. In his role, William will help clients navigate the complexities of selling a business or achieving growth through acquisitions.
