Doeren Mayhew Announces Newly Promoted Michigan Managers

TROY, MICH. – Sept. 25, 2015 – Doeren Mayhew, a Michigan-based CPA and advisory firm with locations in Texas and Florida, has announced the promotions of four of its Troy, Mich. staff. Effective Oct. 1, 2015, Vallorie Ebert, Perry McBride, Megan McCandlish and Matt Okkerse will assume their new positions as managers in the firm.

Each staff member being promoted within their designated service area will take on added responsibilities in their new positions, including increased engagement oversight and interaction with clients.

Accounting, Audit and Assurance Promotions

Vallorie Ebert, CPA; Perry McBride, CPA and Megan McCandlish, CPA have been appointed to managers from associates. Averaging more than five years of experience each, they will leverage sound accounting practices and assurance services to help clients improve controls, create efficiencies and simplify management’s day-to-day financial decision.

Tax Promotions

Matt Okkerse, CPA, MSA, formerly an associate, joins the ranks of managers. As a manager in the Tax Group he will provide oversight on client tax engagements to help minimize tax liabilities and ensure accurate compliance.
