

Christopher Tull, CPA

Professional Experience

Christopher Tull is an Audit Shareholder at Doeren Mayhew. A member of the firm's Accounting, Audit and Assurance Group, clients rely on him to verify and offer guidance that sound accounting practices are being used through a variety of risk-based assurance services.

Since joining the firm in 2004, Christopher has provided audit and business advisory services to closely held corporations in various sectors, including multifamily/affordable housing, real estate, manufacturing, recycling, construction, logistics, oil and gas, pharmaceutical, franchise, broker dealing and payment processing.

In addition to providing financial reporting guidance to clients, Christopher consults with a wide variety of clients on issues, such as financial due diligence and the merger and acquisition process.
