

Sandy Kowalski

Professional Experience

Sandy Kowalski is a business development and client relationship professional with Doeren Mayhew. Leveraging more than 20 years of experience, she develops and nurtures relationships with our clients' executive teams to understand their unique business needs and objectives.

Collaborating with the firm's professionals, Sandy helps devise a solution of services to ensure these businesses' needs are met. Whether its international or domestically focused, she'll bring the right resources together to deliver sound audit, tax planning, wealth management, merger and acquisition, payroll, insurance or business advisory services. Her efforts have a special focus in the construction, health care, manufacturing, hospitality and real estate sectors.

Prior to joining the firm, Sandy was a leader in the hospitality industry as a Managing Partner of a successful Metro Detroit restaurant group.
