

Jennifer Sanderson, CPA, MST

Professional Experience

Jennifer Sanderson is a Shareholder in Doeren Mayhew's Tax Group with more than 25 years of public accounting experience.

Serving a diverse sector of closely held businesses and their owners, Jennifer's expertise is called on to provide advice on all aspects of income taxation, including entity selection, attribute retention and tax-saving strategies.

Leveraging her knowledge and experience as an Associate Professor teaching tax and accounting courses at Walsh College, she serves as a leader in the firm's education program providing training to clients and firm professionals on a wide range of accounting and tax best practices.

Prior to joining the firm, Jennifer was a Tax Principal at a large regional CPA firm. Most recently she served as Tax Associate at Ringler CPA, while being a full-time professor at Walsh College.

Education and Certifications

- Master of Science, Taxation – American University
- Bachelor of Business Administration, Accountancy – Western Michigan University
- Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

Memberships and Affiliations

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
- Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MICPA)

Shareholder

248.244.3259
sanderson@doeren.com

Areas of Expertise

- Domestic Tax
- Business Tax
- Individual Tax