

Michael Whelen, CPA

Professional Experience

Michael Whelen is a Director within Doeren Mayhew's Tax Group, where he primarily focuses on tax compliance and planning services for small businesses, high-net-worth individuals as well as trusts and estates.

Applying more 30 years of experience, Michael advises his clients in various areas of public accounting, including general accounting support, tax compliance for businesses and individuals, and overall tax planning strategies.

Additionally, he brings a wealth of knowledge in unique tax matters, such as individual tax liabilities, small business sales, business entity dissolution, federal and state tax audits, foreign financial disclosures requirements and more.

Prior to joining the firm, Michael built his tax skillset as a Principal at Thrasher & Associates before its 2019 merger with Doeren Mayhew.
