

Eric Larson, CPA/ABV, ASA, CBA, CMA, CFE

Professional Experience

Eric Larson is a Shareholder at Doeren Mayhew with over 22 years of experience. He is highly skilled in the fields of financial valuation, transaction negotiation, merger and acquisition representation, and corporate financial analysis. He has provided business valuations for various situations including, estate and gift taxation, succession planning, employee stock ownership plans, purchase and sale advisement, purchase price allocation, marital dissolution and other tax and business-related matters.

Eric also has expertise in financial analysis, valuation and transaction consulting across many industries, including agriculture, general and specialty contracting, plastics and metal manufacturing, transportation, finance and insurance, health care, professional services and more.

He is recognized as an expert throughout multiple jurisdictions in Michigan and federal courts. And, he's a former adjunct faculty member of Grand Valley State University's economics department.

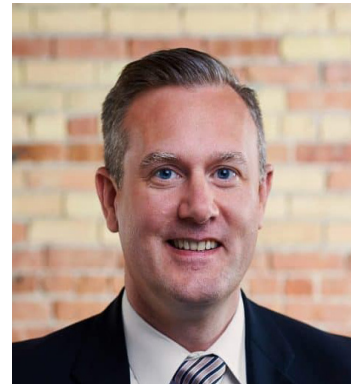

Eric recently joined Doeren Mayhew as part of a merger announced in January 2022.

Education and Certifications

- Bachelor of Science Degree, Economics – Grand Valley State University
- Master of Business Administration Degree – Grand Valley State University

Memberships and Affiliations

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- American Society of Appraisers
- Association of Certified Fraud Examiners
- Association for Corporate Growth
- Institute of Business Appraisers
- Institute of Management Accountants
- Seidman College of Business – Grand Valley State University

Shareholder

616.235.2751

el Larson@doeren.com

Areas of Expertise

- Valuation and Litigation
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Construction
- Health Care
- Manufacturing